

Op. Dr. Ömer Cenker Ilıcalı CV

Op. Dr. Ömer Cenker ILICALI, who completed his education in 1993 at the Istanbul University Medical Faculty, has studied at the USA Albert Nemeth Center after completion of his specialization. Ilıcalı, who is also a member of ISHRS (International Society of Hair Restoration Surgery), has participated in a large number of hair transplantation procedures with the FUT and FUE technique since the year 2000 and also participated in many conferences, congresses and aesthetic seminars related to his field of specialty.

Ilıcalı has achieved being in the forefront with the achievement of maximum graft (hair root) planting in one session of hair transplantation operations, gaining natural appearance by implanting hair in the direction of hair growth and the sustainability of implanted hair. Ilıcalı, who has also developed his work on eyebrow, beard and mustache transplantation, is also working as a medical coordinator for the Anatomica Hair Restoration Clinic.